Plymouth, May 20.

146 COURT STREET.

Dear Miss Whitney

We have considered
your most kind
proposition and
now, notwithstanding
the kindness - not withstanding the
wondrous beauty
of Shelburne, and
your knoll especially,
we feel that we cannot plan to accept the offer.

There are many
many reasons why,
but I shall spare
you those at this time.

There is one thing of which you may be sure; - that our
broth. - niece & aunt
aunt & niece - appreciate the fact
that you thought of us
in connection with
that house which is

enshroued by its associations.

We are looking forward
to seeing you in your old home. Please let us know when you are settled there
and ready to see us - then, with our
shortened tether,
we will still find
some good grazing
places.

Longly & gratefully,
Yours Truly,
